JAPANESE PREPARING TO LAND A LARGE ARMY

Fleet of Over Seventy Transports Heading For Kin Chow.

Attempted Landing on the Shores of Korea Bay Frustrated by 20.000 Russian Troops.

Tien Tsin. April 18.—From several sources reports have been received here saying that a Japanese fleet of over seventy transports is heading for Kin Chow, north of Port Arthur.

St. Petersburg, April 18 .- An attempted landing by Japanese troops on the shores of Korea bay, between Port Arthur and the Yalu river, April 12, was frustrated by the Russians. A Japanese torpedo boat flotilla scouted the shores of the bay, but was received with such a heavy fire from land batteries at Takushan, Shingtaitse, the Chanhe and Bedzino

Vice Admiral Togo's flagship then recalled nine transports, which were on the way to land troops. A squadron of ten warships protecting the transports withdrew with them. The Russians Have 20,000 troops

Seoul, April 18, 5 p. m .- The commissioner of customs at Gensan reports that a strong Russian force, the number of which is not known, it advancing on the great south road following the inland coast of the province of South Hamgyung. The Russians passed to the rear of Sangjin, which was occupied by a scouting party. The main body occupied Peuk Chyong, eighty miles north of Gensan, on the 17th inst. The flanks and rear were exposed with the evident intention of drawing a Japanese attack from the Yalu.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 18 (6:50 p. mr.).—It is asserted here that Russia has purchased two battleships at Schichau and Elbing.

As a result of the Petropavlovsk disaster the admiralty has given orders that the Baltic and Black sea warships be fitted with longitudinal bulkheads and that they be pierced so as to permit of communication between the water-tight compartments on either side of the vessels.

The correspondent of the Associated Press learns that about a fortnight ago Vice Admira! Makaroff telegraphed to the emperor that he had searched a number of suspicious looking Chinese junks which were hovering about the entrance of the harbor and found them loaded with vegetables but in the stern loaded with vegetables and the last of the explosion was internal or the explosion was lateful to the explosion was leasted press. NEW YORK INSTRUCTS FOR JUDGE ALTON B. PARKER

David B. Hill Heads the List of Delegates to St. Louis.

Convention Was Harmonious, Tammany Naming a Delegate-al Large and Also an Alternate.

Albany, N. Y., April 18.—The Democratic state convention for the + election of delegates to the national convention selected the following + delegates-at-large: David B. Hill, of Albany, Edward Murphy, jr., of + Troy, George Ehret of New York City, and James W. Ridgeway of + Brooklyn, As alternates it selected D. N. Bulger of Oswego, W. Caryl + Ely of Buffalo, C. H. Ackerman of Broome, and Francis Burton Hartison of New York.

Fily of Buffalo, C. H. Ackerman of Broome, and Francis Burton Harrison of New York.

The delegates were instructed, by a vote of 301 to 149, for Alton B.

Parker as the state's candidate for president. Tammany was not treated as badly as had been predicted, being allowed to name a delegate at-large, Mr. Ehret, and an alternate, and one of the two electors-at-large, Harry Payne Whitney, the other being John T. Woodford.

The platform adopted is brief, and in addition to instructing for Parker, compels the delegation to vote as a unit.

Among the district presidential electors are Isador Straus, Robert B. Roosevelt, Hugh J. Grant, Herman Ridder and John D. Crimmins.

The list of district delegates to the national convention includes the following: Perry Belmont, P. H. McCarren, Martin W. Littleton, Controller Edward M. Grout, James Shevlin, Congressman T. D. Sullivan, Congressman Sulzer, Lewis Nixon, Bird S. Coler, William McAdoo, W. Bourke Cockran, Robert A. Van Wyck, Charles F. Murphy, Franklin Bartlett, Charles A. Towne, Thomas F. Grady, Harry Payne Whitney, Jefferson M. Levy, Charles W. Dayton, Asa Bird Gardiner, Elliott F. Danforth, George O. Raines and John B. Stanchfield.

A LBANY, April 18.—The Democratic state convention to elect delegates to the national convention and to nominate electors-at-large and presidential electors, was called to order here this afternoon.

Great confusion resulted from orders which had been given to keep the doors closed until the last moment.
